Dear Ms. Cortes:

This is in response to your 15 May 2013 and 14 June 2013 letters, received in the office of the Information and Privacy Coordinator on 15 May 2013 and 14 June 2013, respectively, concerning the status of your Freedom of Information Act request of 9 February 2013 for information regarding the following:

any subpoenas and electronic orders of preservation received by this office from the Central Intelligence Agency, including the WikiLeaks Task Force received between 2008 and 2013, (the past five years) that mention the Tor Project, or one of the following individuals involved with the Tor Project, including Andrew Lewman, Roger Dingledine, Nick Mathewson, and Jacob Appelbaum (who also may be known as Jacob Applebaum or Jake Appelbaum/Applebaum).

Enclosed you will find a copy of our response concerning your request in the above case number, originally mailed to you on 22 February 2013.

Sincerely,

Dear Ms. Cortes:

This is a final response to your 9 February 2013 Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request, received in the office of the Information and Privacy Coordinator on 11 February 2013, for information regarding the following:

“any subpoenas and electronic orders of preservation received by this office from the Central Intelligence Agency, including the WikiLeaks Task Force received between 2008 and 2013, (the past five years) that mention the Tor Project, or one of the following individuals involved with the Tor Project, including Andrew Lewman, Roger Dingledine, Nick Mathewson, and Jacob Appelbaum (who also may be known as Jacob Applebaum or Jake Appelbaum/Applebaum.)”

Our analysts have reviewed your request and are unable to determine what records you are seeking. For your information, the FOIA provides for public access to “reasonably described” records so that professional employees familiar with the subject matter can locate responsive information with a reasonable amount of effort. Commonly this equates to a requirement that the documents must be locatable through the indexing of our various systems. Extremely broad or vague requests or requests requiring research do not satisfy this requirement.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink.

Information and Privacy Coordinator
